COMING EVENTS
& ACTIVITIES

This morning, following the services, Heaven Bound class will enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner Plan to stay.

- TONIGHT AT 6:00 P.M.: THE LORD'S SUPPER

All church members should make the effort to attend, knowing all that the Savior did for us. Let's prepare our hearts as we remember the body and blood of Savior, upon the Cross. As we always do, be prepared to give a testimony for the Lord.

- Mid-week service change:

During the week of Thanksgiving, the mid-week service will be moved back to Tuesday, Nov. 21st at the usual time of 7 p.m.

- As this month closes out, the church will discontinue showing the T.V. commercial which we've done for the past year. Against all that I was told by the commercial company, we've had no responses. I know the message reached into homes of those we may never know, but it hasn't benefited the ministry of the church.

Thanks so much to you who have faithfully given month by month to this outreach. Your reward is waiting on the "other side"

- Sun. p.m. Nov. 26th—elect a nominating committee

- Sun. Dec. 10th, nominating meets following the morning service to prepare a ballot for the January business meeting.

- Finance Committee Meeting: Friday, Jan. 5th at 6:30 p.m.

“And Be Ye Thankful”

If all of us would really begin writing down the things for which are thankful, we would need to get another sheet or two of paper. In the church's ministry, we are thankful for the many who help in the areas of ministry need. Below are those who teach, or help (or both) in our Sunday School. During the Sunday School hour, they are mostly unseen by most of the people because of the locations of their classes. Though out of sight, they are certainly not out of mind. So much depends upon them. They stand as a turning point in the lives of our young people who must be reached for Christ.

Isaac Foster in Korea

Dear Pastors and Churches and Friends,

Ecc. 9:10 says, “Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might for. For there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither thou goest.”

Since I surrendered my all to the Savior in the early 1940's, this has been one of my life verses. We are taught to stay busy in the Master's vineyard. My prayer life and Bible study time equips me to handle the affairs of the mission field. To prepare lessons, translate study books, be ready to be of help to our foreign pastors, and answer the many letters received, and to make appointments takes the Lord's strength and direction. Many times I am burning the midnite oil to stay on top of things. Some may not understand this area of my life and call and tell me to go to bed, but when the Lord lays something on my heart, I must do it, and “do it with all my might.”

Received a gift of food today from Kay Kim Son. She brought a sack of persimmons and left them in the church office. By the time they brought them over to the house, they were almost spoiled. Later, she brought a bag of chestnuts. To eat them, they must be boiled.

Things are going well with winterizing my home. It has been a big job and I'm glad I'm through.

Last month, one trusted Christ after he received a tract. We are facing some problems here that plague the whole world. People are just not interested in the Lord or His word. I have to reconcile myself that, when they turn down my Savior, they are not rejecting me, but my Father's eternal way.

Thank you for the $ 100 for the work in this needy land.

Ike Foster, 65 years a missionary
